this book sheds light on experiences relatively underrepresented in academic and non academic sport history it examines how asian and pacific islander peoples used american football to maintain a sense of community while encountering racial exclusion labor exploitation and colonialism through their participation and spectatorship in american football asian and pacific islander people crossed treacherous cultural frontiers to construct what sociologist elijah anderson has called a cosmopolitan canopy under which asian americans pacific islanders and people of diverse racial and ethnic identities interacted with at least a semblance of respect and equity and perhaps a surprising number of asian americans and pacific islanders have excelled in college and even professional football before the 1960s finally acknowledging the impressive influx of elite pacific islander gridgers who surfaced in the late twentieth and early twenty first century it is vital to note as well the racialized nativism shadowing the lives of these athletes in may of 2015 i was enjoying my morning coffee and was about to write in my journal i would always write a plan for a perfect day and intend it to be what i wanted as i was about to start writing i heard write what god would say whew i sat back and stared at the page i decided to put the pen to the paper let my mind go blank and see if anything would happen i wrote the first sentence that came but i still wondered if it was me or not then the words came as fast as i could write with no thought on my part when i reread the writing i knew i was hearing this for the first time this is my first journal that i wasnt the author of i was just the pen and paper i hope this leads you to your very valuable story because the world needs you there was never a you since the beginning of time and there never will be again you are gods greatest miracle and he wants you to discover all he has put in you and have all that he has in store for you i hope this book leads you to your own amazing self because that is the key to your magic

the thoughts in this book have been taken from thoughts that i have had after doing my daily scripture readings i have taken all my thoughts from the year 2015 as i have written them each morning and posted on facebook most people that take the time out of their day to read these posts have asked me to bring them together into a book my goal is that you will find some thoughts and prayers that you will be able to better your life and help to change who you are i hope you enjoy the thoughts i have put to paper and that they cause you to think about what you truly believe my goal has always been to open peoples minds about their thoughts on god and i hope you start to think more about how god has played a part in your life even when you didnt think about him may god bless you and be with you as you reflect on these
